BOWER HILL NEWS

GOD IN OUR MIDST BY REV. LAURIE

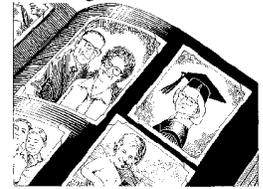

SEPTEMBER 2007

What is God doing in our midst? As I have spent time thinking about the special worship celebration that the MAT team has been planning for September 9th, I have wondered about that question. What is God doing in our midst? So often we, busy people that we are do not spend a great deal of time noticing or paying attention. How many times do we almost walk past someone we know or fail to notice the look of pain in someone's eyes as we frantically go about the business of living our own lives? And yet, in the midst of us, amazing things, Godly things are happening. During my week of study leave, I was privileged to spend a week in Washington D.C. on the grounds of the National Cathedral. This location, of course, offered me the opportunity to worship several times a day.

The week in D.C. was an amazing opportunity to slow down and pay attention to what God has been doing in my life and in our church. Slowing down to pay attention can be such a tremendous gift as it can make us aware of all that we have to celebrate. It also focuses our attention on things we might otherwise miss. During my week away, I found myself shaking my head in wonder at the way that God had been active and working all around me. It was truly awesome to consider.

In just a few weeks, we will be given a similar opportunity to remember together the many wonderful ways that God has been working at Bower Hill through the people in our community of faith and yes, through each one of us. During worship, all of us will have the opportunity to share how God has been at work in the midst of Bower Hill Community Church. At first, that might sound like a daunting question. How has God been at work in our midst? One of the joys of our time of worship together will be the building up of collective memories. We will no doubt find that what one person shares will prompt someone else to remember something that they had not thought of before or had forgotten and before you know it, we will all be overwhelmed by the reality of how active God has been in this place. I know that as the plans have been shared for the service on the 9th and as I have heard snippets of memories I have been amazed, thinking about all that was going on and it's so easy to miss or forget when we are not slowing down enough to pay attention. What has God done in our midst? I will never forget the "Pounding Party" shortly after our arrival. The crew who came in to set up, organized with decorations and food so that we could be properly welcomed. God was in the midst of that outpouring of love. What has God done in our midst? I think of the abundance of food that we inspired the community to provide that exceeded every expectation! God was in the midst of that! I think of the way that I have seen the members of this congregation surround one another in times of crisis! God was in the midst of that! I hope you will begin to remember your own experiences of God in this place and this family of faith. And may we all anticipate with joy the celebration of God and God's work around and through us.

We Remember...

YOUTH GROUP NEWS BY BRIAN HAYES

Youth Group News

As a new school year is dawning, the Youth Groups of BHCC are enthusiastic about fall ministry opportunities. While the high schoolers were on the mission trip in San Diego, we became decisively aware of how much support our congregation had thanklessly offered in both prayer and financial aid. The students could not help but realize that without the guiding hand of the members of BHCC, they would have never been able to travel to Southern California. In an effort to return this deep swell of gratitude, the students decided that it would be appropriate to lead the congregation in Worship by holding another Youth Sunday. This service would provide a medium for the kids to not only disseminate their appreciation for our congregation, but also to share some of the memories from the myriad of experiences which were fused with our mission trip. On Sunday, September 2, this special worship service will take place. This day will provide a chance for our congregation not only to hear firsthand accounts of our trip, but also to interact with the students during fellowship time, following the service. So do not miss this opportunity to get to know some of the students of BHCC! Additional news from the youth department includes a new collaboration with the flea market organizers. Theresa Child, who is heading the flea market organization this year, has extended an invitation to the youth to participate in the flea market. In return, the youth will receive a fraction of the proceeds to use toward our next mission trip.

One more note, our Bible Study will continue through the next year. This is open to any high schoolers or college students who would appreciate unique insight into some of the Epistles of the New Testament, as well as some of the Prophets of the Old Testament.

MUSIC NOTES BY JESSICA BAIER

I would like to thank all of the volunteers who used their musical talent during the summer Worship. Your sharing of gifts was most appreciated.

Here are the dates for first rehearsals for the ensembles:

King's Kids Clappers: Wednesday, September 5, 2007, at 4.30 p.m.

Bell Choir: Thursday, September 6, 2007, at 6.30 p.m.

Chancel Choir: Thursday, September 6, 2007, at 7.45 p.m.

All ensembles will rehearse in the choir room.

Please prayerfully consider joining one of our ensembles. It is a great opportunity to be able to participate in the worship service. If you are interested in trying something new, please let me know.

"Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth; sing the glory of His name... let the sound of His praise be heard..." (Psalm 66:1, 8)

MINUTE FOR MAKING A DIFFERENCE BY ANNE MITCHELL

For several years Bower Hill Community Church and Mt Washington Presbyterian Church have been working together to provide tutoring to second and third grade students at Grandview Elementary School in Mt. Washington. A group of our members meet at the church on Tuesday afternoon to go to Grandview Elementary. We try to provide about one to one 1/2 hours of individual tutoring time with each child. We use feedback from their teachers to help us plan our lessons. The children are very faithful about coming and look forward to tutoring each week and enjoy the individual attention that we are able to give them.

So, maybe even though our goal is to broaden the student's horizons and interests and to improve their reading and writing skills, perhaps the most important thing that we are doing is to make the children feel really good that someone is interested in them and taking the time just to work and listen to them. When we see the smiling faces of the children as they walk into the room we realize that the time spent with each child is very important to them. I guess we do make a difference!

Anyone interested in joining us, please contact Bev. Lamb, Betsy Hohlfelder, or Anne Mitchell.

Minute for Making a Difference

The first photo session for our new church directory went well, even with torrents of rain during the first hour of appointments. The second and third sessions are scheduled for Friday, September 14, from 3:00 P.M. to 9:30 P.M. and on Saturday, September 15, from 10:00 A.M. to 5 P.M. If you have NOT signed up for photos yet, please call Olan Mills at 1-800-866-2263 from 9AM to 9PM Monday through Friday and tell them our contract number is 19955. If you need to change your appointment, call the same number. As of this writing there are many appointments available on Saturday afternoon and after 7P.M. on Friday. If you are unable to have your photo taken during these times, it is possible that you can have them taken at another church in the area. Please call Jean Miewald at (412) 221-2114 for more information on this option.

When you come for your photos, please arrive in the Lounge (portico entrance) about 10 minutes ahead of your scheduled time. Expect to spend 30 to 45 minutes after your scheduled time having your photos taken and then meeting with the photo consultant to choose the photo for the directory.

We are also looking for casual shots of things happening at or through Bower Hill Church. If you have some that you are willing to share, please contact Jean Miewald or Glenn Child.

BOOKWORMS BY MARGARET ZABO

Bookworms is the name of the women's book club at Bower Hill. Each month, women gather at someone's home for a book discussion and fellowship. Newcomers are always welcome! In September, we will meet on September 18, at 7:30 p.m. to discuss the book, The Worst Hard Time by Timothy Egan. Location: at the home of Mary Laufer. Come and join us! You'll be glad you did!

MISSION AND MEMORIAL OPPORTUNITY BY BETSY HOHLFELDER

As we mentioned in last month's newsletter, Bower Hill will be doing a local mission project at SHIM's Prospect Park Family Center in honor and memory of Diane Leeson. The project will allow us to serve two groups that were important to Diane, SHIM, where she was a faithful pantry volunteer, and preschool children, who she worked with during her professional career.

The Prospect Park Family Center is located in a small apartment in Whitehall. Many of the families served are refugees who are benefiting from assistance in learning our culture and in preparing their kids to enter school with the readiness that they need. The Center has been open for less than a year and its program seems to be growing nicely. The facility itself, however, is in need of fresh paint, carpeting and serviceable furniture.

Bower Hill Community Church has scheduled three days in September to help give the Center a facelift. There are three opportunities to help with this project:

Saturday, Sept. 22nd 8:00-Noon
 Sunday, Sept. 23rd 1:00-5:00
 Saturday, Sept. 29th 8:00-until we finish in the afternoon

Would you like to join us? We need people to wash walls, paint and to do some minor carpentry. You may come once, twice or all three times, as often as your schedule allows. Mission and Outreach will provide the paint and tools, but we need your labor of love.

There will be a sign-up poster in the Narthex and we encourage you to consider helping. You may also email Steve Boisvert at sdboisvert@comcast.net or give him a call at 412-531-7321 to sign up.

Please help us to serve others with joy as Diane so faithfully taught us to do.

UPCOMING ADULT EDUCATION

Adult Education

September 16, "American Religious Democracy" - Bruce Ledewitz, Professor of Law at Duquesne University will discuss his recent book which is subtitled "Coming to Terms with the End of Secular Politics." Matthew 22:21—So Jesus said to them "Well, then, pay to the Emperor what belongs to the Emperor, and pay to god what belongs to God."

September 23, David Green will lead a discussion of last week's topic.

September 30, New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina—Bill Wegner will show slides and discuss his work to help the victims. Nehemiah 2:17—But now I said to them, "See what trouble we are in because Jerusalem is in ruins and its gates are destroyed! Let's rebuild the city walls and put an end to our disgrace."

October 7, Oikocredit/Socially Responsible Investing—Charlotte Lott from Oikocredit. Psalm 15:5—They make loans without charging interest and cannot be bribed to testify against the innocent. Whoever does these things will always be secure.

FLEA MARKET NEWS BY THERESA CHILD

This year's flea market will be held Saturday, November 17. Collection will begin immediately. PLEASE Do Not include clothes, books or large furniture. All items must be clean and in working condition. Items can be dropped off Monday through Friday between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. or Sunday after worship. If you are able please take all items directly upstairs to the loft, otherwise leave items on the benches outside Fellowship Hall. If you have any questions please call Theresa Child at (412) 429-9519.

FLEA MARKET UPDATE BY THERESA CHILD

Even though Jean Grabow has "retired," the flea market will continue to be a tradition at Bower Hill. This year we plan on trying out some new ideas and see how they go.

The first new idea is the addition of the "Bower Hill Boutique." Nicer items will be sold in a separate area or room called the Boutique. Many area churches have found this to be a successful practice.

We are also changing the way we price. We will be pricing on Sundays after the second worship service every other week until the sale is here. We are looking for people to help. Guides will be available for those who are unsure of how to price. The dates for pricing are September 9, September 23, October 7, October 21, November 4 and November 11. If you can help once or twice on these dates please call Theresa Child at (412) 429-9519. Sign-up sheets will also be available after worship during the month of September (or until all slots are filled). Remember one of the advantages of helping with the flea market is that helpers get first dibs on the items coming in.

The most exciting change is youth involvement. We have invited the youth of the church to participate in the preparation of the flea market in exchange for a portion of the profit. They will be our "heavy lifters." During pricing sessions they will pack and stack boxes and the night before the set up of the sale they will bring all the boxes downstairs to the tables to be unpacked. In addition, they may run a refreshment stand in lieu of the usual bake sale. Involving the youth provides the opportunity for multiple generations to get to know each other better as we work toward a common goal. Whether you decide to be a helper or a customer, we hope you check out this year's Flea Market.

HELP SPREAD THE WORD BY THERESA CHILD

There are always great things going on in our church and we need your help to spread the word. If there is an event you would like to see mentioned in any of the local newspapers or on a local cable channel contact me, Theresa Child, at (412) 429-9519 or at treetoowon@yahoo.com.

Please keep in mind that newspapers and TV stations need several weeks lead time, so the sooner you can get the information to me the better. Also, include as many details as possible, i.e., names of speakers, credentials of speakers, what fund raiser money will be used for, etc. While there is no guarantee that our releases will be published I can promise that it will not be for lack of trying.

BOWER HILLERS BY VIRGINIA STARR

Bower Hillers Luncheon

The Bower Hillers will be having a luncheon on Wednesday, September 26, 2007 at 12:00 noon in the Crossroads Room of the St. Clair Country Club. Elaine Dively, will be the guest speaker and will be speaking about how to, "Maintain Your Brain, Stay Sharp Longer." There will be a lunch of Bibb Romaine and Watercress Salad and Scallopini of Chicken Picatta. For dessert there will be ice cream with your choice of topping. The cost for the luncheon will be $18.00 per person. We would love to have you join us. New members always welcome. Please contact Virginia Starr to R.S.V.P. at (412) 563-6494 by September 22.

UPDATE ON THE CHURCH KITCHEN BY THE KITCHEN LADIES

The Deacon's and other groups that use the kitchen regularly, are working hard to keep it clean. Please note the new arrangements of the shelves in the refrigerator. Each shelf has been assigned to a particular group and that group should be responsible for labeling anything placed in the refrigerator, with the date and it's intended use.

If there are leftovers from an event and they can be used for another activity, then please label them and contact the people involved in the new activity to let them know the item is in the refrigerator on a particular shelf for their use. This includes the freezer.

Please don't just leave something in the refrigerator, HOPING someone else will use it.

Thank you,
from "The Kitchen Ladies,"
Carolyn Westerhoff and Margaret Zabo

COMMUNITY FUND RAISER BY SUSAN AND DAVE HICKS

The Rotary Club of Upper St. Clair—Bethel Park is hosting their 19th annual Chicken Barbeque, Saturday, September 29, 2007 from 11:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. at Westminster Presbyterian Church, (Rt 19 just South of South Hills Village). You can eat in, drive through or takeout. Tickets are $10.00 each (children may share meals). This annual fundraiser benefits the Make-A-Wish Foundation, St. Francis Early Learning Institute, Camp Aim, Southwinds, YMCA Camp Kon-O-Kwee, South Hills Interfaith Ministries (SHIM), and many other organizations. Contact Susan or Dave Hicks at (412) 833-7753.

FOOD BANK COLLECTION BY JASON RISING

Food Bank Needs

The food pantry appreciates your donations for August! This month's donations will be collected on Sunday, September 9th. Donations of low sugar cereal, laundry detergent, canned fruit and pasta are critically low and are suggested. Please contact Jason Rising at 412-851-1503, jaydr@adelphia.net, for more information.

EAGLE SCOUT GARDEN AT BHCC BY CAROL KNOX

Bower Hill Church has always been a big supporter of Girl and Boy Scout groups who, for many years, have made their homes here. So when Scott Olinger, one of our teenage members, called the Building and Grounds Committee to ask for our approval of his Eagle Scout project to benefit the church, we answered with a resounding "YES"!!

All summer long Scott has been collecting perennials, evergreens, paint and other materials in anticipation of installing a lovely bird garden off the portico parking lot. Many nurseries have been kind enough to donate plant materials or given discounts, and Scott has purchased a number of plants on his own.

Now, however, he's down to the "nitty gritty" of ordering topsoil, mulch and fertilizer. If you have a special place in your heart for young people who are making a difference, your kind donations will help Scott realize his Eagle Scout dreams. At the same time, Bower Hill will be benefiting from a worthwhile, permanent improvement to our church grounds.

Please make your check payable to Bower Hill Community Church, earmarked "Eagle Scout Project." Thanks for your support.

A COMMUNITY EVENT ON TOLERANCE AND DIVERSITY

Please join us on Sunday, September 9 for the Henry J. Goldstein B'nai B'rith Speaker Series, to hear Sandra Roberts, the lead teacher for the "Paper Clips" project. Sandra Roberts and two students from Whitwell Middle School will discuss the challenges and triumphs of teaching tolerance, acceptance and understanding. This is a moving story of how the students of Whitwell Middle School in Tennessee responded to what had been for them a completely unfamiliar chapter in human history-the Holocaust. There are two programs to choose from on Sunday, September 9, 2007: From 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon—Co-sponsored by and will be held at Beth El Congregation of the South Hills, 1900 Cochran Road, Pittsburgh, PA 15220. From 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. Co-sponsored by Hillel JUC and will be held at: Carnegie Mellon University Center, 5000 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15213, . These programs are free and open to the public. Please RSVP by September 4 to (412) 521-2390 or nkaplan@bnaibrith.org. Thank you, Rabbi Alex Greenbaum, Beth El of the South Hills

PASS IT ON BY REV. LAURIE

Have you read any good books lately? One of the projects of the Simplicity group was to set up a book shelf outside the library to recycle books. The group knew that we have many members of the congregation who like to read and who are accumulating books in their homes, so we thought that it might be helpful to have a place where books could be passed on to others who like to read. The books are available to anyone who wants them and it is not necessary to bring in a book to "swap" for the one you want. Another frequently asked question is if it is ok to take more than one book. Absolutely! In fact, on September 15th, we will be paring down our book selection by making a donation to the library book sale. With that in mind, if there is a book you really want (even if it is one you donated yourself) please make sure you remove it before the 15th. Also, if you have a new book to pass on, please wait until after the 15th to bring it in. If you have any questions, please ask and happy reading!

PREACHING PLANS FOR THE SECOND SERVICE BY REV. LEONARD

The start of the program year is almost here and some time ago I decided to focus my preaching on a particular subject. I want us to consider what makes us Reformed Christians and Presbyterian. As we are in a time when some of our brothers and sisters in our Faith have come to believe that our denomination has become confused about God I want to hold up the key understandings that make us Presbyterian.

Of course there is not even a consensus about what the key understandings are. Still I was fortunate enough to find a book, Witnesses Without Parallel Eight Biblical Texts that make us Presbyterian by Earl S. Johnson, Jr. in it he has picked out what he thinks are the sections of the Bible that we Reformed Christians are most influenced by. (I confess that I think he missed a couple.) Nevertheless I am hopeful that if we spend some time with them we will have a better appreciation for our corner of the Faith.

Because the program year includes many things I will not be able to preach this series in eight successive Sundays, but I have put together a schedule that I think will be nourishing.

Faithfully,

Leonard

9-16: Romans 10:9 – Jesus Is Lord

9-23: Romans 1:16-17 and 3:26 – Justification by Faith Alone

9-30: Genesis 1:1-2:4 - Creation.

10-7: World Communion Sunday

10-14: Romans 8:30 - I will preach about the doctrine of Predestination.

10-21: Exodus 5:1 - I will preach about God's desire for the world to be a better place.

10-28: Stewardship

11-4: All Saints Day

11-11: Galatians 3:28-29 - I will preach about how the Church's understanding about women has evolved.

11-18: Romans 2:1 - I will preach about judgment.

11-25: Ephesians 2:14 - I will preach about how our comfort, hope and safety rests on the hope created when Jesus promised us peace.

WORSHIP NEWS BY REV. LAURIE

As September begins, we draw to an end of the summer blended worship schedule. This year however, we will extend the schedule one week so that we can all worship together on Kick-off Sunday, September 9, at 9:30 a.m. This Kick-off Service promises to be an unforgettable experience and is being prayerfully planned by one of our two MAT (mission action teams). The heart of worship will center on stories about how we have seen God at work at Bower Hill. I hope you will join me in beginning to think and pray and remember all the wonderful ways that you have seen God through the experiences and people of Bower Hill as we will all be given an opportunity to share how we have seen God at work. After the service on the 9th, we will adjourn to the Fellowship Hall to continue our celebration as we engage in conversations together. This fellowship time will conclude with a catered brunch. I can't imagine a better way to Kick-off the year then celebrating together what God has done and is doing in our midst!

As the month of September continues, the fall schedule will begin with a slight change in the time of the Traditional Service. On Sunday, September 16, we will worship with two services and the schedule will be as follows:

Contemporary Worship 9:00 a.m.

Sunday School for all ages 9:00 a.m.

(We will continue with the first Sunday of the month as Family Worship Sunday so there will be no Sunday School for Children and Youth on that Sunday).

Fellowship Time 9:45 a.m.

Traditional Worship 10:30 a.m.

(* Note the change from 10:15 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. This is to allow some time for our Director of Music Ministries to warm up the choir and it will allow all the rest of the worship team to prepare for the second service)

CONTEMPORARY WORSHIP BY REV. LAURIE

At the Contemporary Worship service, I will continue to preach from the Revised Common Lectionary. The texts for September are wonderful and challenging parables and I encourage you to read them and pray over them in preparation for worship. Also as you prepare for worship, it is always a blessing to the service itself and to the leadership team if you engage in prayer before, during and after worship. May we all be blessed by God's word to us as we pray and worship together.

Sunday, September 16: Luke 15:1-10: The lost coin and the lost sheep.

Sunday, September 23: Luke 16:1-13: The parable of the dishonest manager.

Sunday, September 30: Luke 16:19-31: The rich man and Lazarus.

HAT(S) BY REV. LAURIE

In the spring of 2006, the Hunger Action Team was born out of a moving exploration of the issues of Hunger and Poverty. We organized a Fill the Truck Project which involved the whole church and the community and a Hunger Action Day last fall. We also continued our discussion in the spring of this year to include the topic of Simplicity. At a recent meeting, we decided to continue our work by meeting monthly with three purposes in mind; to pray together about the issues of Hunger and Poverty, to continue learning about the issues and concerns, and to consider what God is calling us to do in the future. Last month we discussed the book How Much is Enough? by Arthur Simon and we also decided to host another Fall Event to raise awareness and money for hunger. We plan to meet again on Wednesday September 26th at 7:00 pm to discuss the book Justice in the Burbs: Being the Hands of Jesus Wherever You Live by Will Samson and to make plans for the Fall Festival. Everyone is welcome to join us and copies of the book will be available in the church office for those who are interested. If you would like more information or if you would like to share an idea, please let me know.
